COMING DOUBLE WEDDING! Soon to Take Place in West Haven-A So cial Event of Unusual Interest, A very interesting event in West Haven society for which cards are already out is the coming marriage both of Miss Sophy Lovell Northrop and of her brother, Willis Dickerman Northrop, which will occur in that borough on the afternoon and evening of March 5, when Miss Northrop will wed Mr. Benjamin White Collins, a well known and highly esteemed Meriden gentleman, the ceremony taking place at the residence of the bride's mother, Mrs. Martha J. Northrop, on Washington street, at 4 p. m., while her brother Willis will at 6:30 p. m. be joined in the holy bands of matrimony to Miss Louise Pritchard in the West Haven Congregational church.

Miss Prithcard is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Pritchard, old and much esteemed West Haven people. Mr. Northrop is now a resident of Norfolk, Va., where he holds a very responsible position in the navy yard at Portsmouth, directly across the river from Norfolk. Mr. Northrop and his bride after a short wedding tour expecto reside in Norfolk, while Miss Nor-

THE MISSIONS IN ALASKA-REV. MR. PREVOST TELLS OF THE WORK THERE.

Rev. Jules S. Prevost spoke at Trinity hurch yesterday morning, giving at count of his work there among the natives in the missionary field. He said that the natives, under the inence of the mission's teaching, are coming very docile and are immeas urably benefitted. The missions also give them much material benefit in various ways. They are casting much f their old superstition and barbarity and presents a most agreeable cor rast to what they were before the missionaries began work among them. Mr. Prevost comes direct from the work n this field and graphically described he natives.

At 12:20 he addressed a meeting of young men at the Trinity parish build-ng and at 4 o'clock he gave an acunt of his work to the congregation St. John's.

In the evening Grace church memers had the pleasure of listening to his talk on the same lines.

AN INTERESTING OCCASION. A large number of Endeavorers and heir friends assembled at the Ferry treet church recently, the occasion being the second social and reception of the New Haven Christian Endeavor nion, which was held under the ausces of the reception committee of '95. Rev. G. S. Richards, pastor of the Ferry street church, welcomed the large number present to the church, and the remaining numbers on the program were announced by Miss Emma . Rhodes, who is president of the Verry street Y. P. S. C. E. Miss Rhodes was dressed in a costume of 'ye olden time," as were most of the roung ladies present from that society. the program consisted of vocal and in trumental selections interspersed with numorous readings. This part of the exercises was brought to an end by the audience rising and singing "Amerca." At the conclusion of this hymn Il present adjourned to the parlors elow, where refreshments were served

Among the prominent Endeavorers noticed during the evening may be mentioned ex-Secretary Miss Kate I. Donovan of the New Haven Christian Endeavor union, W. E. Perry, chairman of the reception committee of Charles D. Sherman of the press com-mittee, Robert Bright, Herbert J. Downs, the Messrs. Moulthrop of West Haven, Rollin C. Horsfall, Miss A. I. Against American Cattle.

Parls, Feb. 24.-At the cabinet meeting to-day M. Gaudaud, minister of agriculture, made an order in council forbidding the importation of American cattle into France on account of the Texas fever and pleuro-pneumonia, with which they are alleged to be in-fected. This order is undoubtedly the outcome of the persistent protectionist agitation in the rural districts. Ever since the new cabinet entered office M. Gaudaud has been besieged by agrarian eputations and petitioners.

> Corruption in Public Offices-How Reme died-Its Evil Results - Many Offices

Rev. Daniel Merriman, D. D., of Wor ester, Mass, who preached in Battell chapel yesterday morning, spoke before the Young Men's club of the United church last evening on "Civil Service Reform as Related to Public Morals."

He told of how at the present day, in stend of offices being regarded as pubic trusts, they are looked upon as public prizes. In Washington's time and for several administrations after no such thing as "distribution of offices" was thought of. Now it has become an evil which threatens national disintegration. Dr. Merriman quoted from President Cleveland, who said that i the country was ever ruined it would be by the wriggle and scramble for ofice, President Harrison said that it one day he was visited by one hundred office-seekers, each one accompanied by a congressman, who wished to parcel out offices to his helpers and henchmen. This disposition of the legi-lative branch of government to usurp executive pow-ers came to a head under Garfield's administration, when a senator who at tempted this usurpation was requested to retire from office. This miserable system of parceling out offices resulted in the death of Garfield. His death was brought about by this, as was Lincoln's death by the feeling engendered by re

There seems to be no care for the pub welfare. Public office seems to be regarded as a prey. Men want places irrespective of the men required in the places. From this system grows a desire to increase the number of offices, so there will be enough to go around. In the bureau of engraving it was re cently discovered that there were twice as many employed as were needed and in the New York custom house it also found that a large number of men were employed in sinceures. Once in office, men seem to desire to prevent offending the politicians who helped to secure the places and so will resort to any device to help these politicians' schemes. Of course public of fices are necessary, but they should be organized for principles, not for plun When spoils are made the object of party organization it penetrates to all localities of the country and exerts debasing influence everywhere. spoils system gives an influence to lo cal and national offices which does not belong to them and degrades the whole system. When you have to buy men to vote, instead of appealing to their pa-triotism, you can never rely on these nen, It makes no difference whether these bribes are offices or hard cash Zion and St. Timothy's Churh, New Not only does this spoils system work York City-Wednesday Evening, an injury to the mitlon, but it has invariably proven an injury to the administration. Many of the party defeats of recent years can be traced to the disaffection among those who wer lisappointed in their quest for office.

The party which tries to sustain itself plunder and not by principle shall rely fail. Whatever institution is founded on bribes or gifts and does not bring principle into consideration can-

But the sentiment in favor of civil service examination for eligibility to office is growing yearly. There are now 50,000 places which come under these rules, and in many states this is the only way of obtaining office. The efficience of this branch of service is being in creased, and its value is daily being seen. If it was allowed to operate to the full extent, still more advantages would be seen.

In the morning Dr. Munger preached from Exedus 20:6-7, "Visiting the iniquity of the fathers upon the children unto the third and fourth generation of them that hate Me, and showing rcy unto thousands of them that love Me and keep My commandments."

In the concluding portion of his ser mon he made some impressive remarks on public and private morality as an absolute necessity for the well being of this country. His words were particularly emphatic in regard to the neces sity of religious life in the family. His remarks were listened to with close attention and deep interest.
